Where we spent our High School days

FOREWORD

In our four years at Central we have learned the value of good Catholic living. Triumph and defeat have taught us to be able to accept God's will. These walls have held many a vision of our sincerest desires, now only to fade away into dim memories which shall be reviewed in this 1955 Chimes.

We entered as bewildered freshmen four years ago. Now we leave as mature and cultured young men and women to find our place in this world. Many of our happiest moments will be spent reminiscing our high school days.

Our Chapel, where we worship our King and venerate our Queen

Our Principal, Reverend Harold Arbanas

DEDICATION

We, the seniors of Central Catholic High School, gratefully dedicate this 1955 edition of The Chimes to our principal, Reverend Harold Arbanas. Through his priestly zeal and unselfish endeavors he has provided guidance for us in the pursuit of the intellectual, social, and spiritual aspects of a good Catholic life, including a sincere devotion to our heavenly Queen.
